WHEREAS, there came a time several years ago when a demand for having a record on how the barrio of Cataggaman got its name was deeply felt when students in all levels of education needed it as a part of their lessons;

WHEREAS, in the absence of an available written resource at that time, MRS. TERESITA M. BARICAUA took the initiative to interview some old time leaders and reliable elderly folks of the barrio to gather the necessary handed-down verbal information related to them by our ancestors;

WHEREAS, after putting this into a written form, copies of her story which is titled "How Cataggaman Got Its Name" have been continuously requested from her and widely used by students as part of their lessons in school;

WHEREAS, this exact write-up, as a matter of fact, has been printed on the frontal wall of one building at the Cataggaman Elementary School by the school officials to provide a ready reference for students and for all others who may need it anytime;

WHEREAS, this is in order to give due recognition and appreciation for the initiative and effort of the writer.
